HILTON GARDEN INN DOWNTOWN MILWAUKEE HOTEL SET TO UNVEIL NEW GENIUS@WORK® CO-WORKING OFFICE

Membership-based work area will provide modern amenities for individuals and groups

ROSEMONT, Ill., October 01, 2014 – Rosemont, Ill.-based First Hospitality Group Inc. (FHG) announced today plans to unveil Genius@Work®, a new communal, membership-based office and conference space attached to the Hilton Garden Inn Milwaukee Downtown hotel. FHG President and COO Robert Habeeb made the announcement.

Set to open in late October, Genius@Work will provide users with a comfortable, flexible and functional modern co-working space with all of the amenities of a traditional office setting, including high-speed wireless Internet access, flat screen televisions and access to a printing/scanning/fax/copy machine, as well as coffee, tea, fruits and other snacks. The new workspace will include the Genius Lounge, an open office environment suitable for individual and collaborative work; the Genius Studio, comprised of two private rooms for individual focus or small meetings; and the Genius Conference room, which has flexible seating arrangements for up to 10 people.

“Genius@Work provides a unique, inspirational space for individuals and small groups to gather, share ideas and collaborate in an office setting equipped with modern technology and amenities to meet the needs of our members,” said Habeeb. “With a wide variety of affordable membership options, Genius@Work will serve as a great alternative to traditional office environments for inspired individuals.”

Membership options include day passes, weekly passes, monthly passes, annual passes and conference room-specific passes. The Genius@Work space will be located in downtown Milwaukee on Broadway and Michigan St. through the Hilton Garden Inn Downtown Milwaukee hotel awning. Individuals interested in membership packages can visit us at www.GeniusAtWork.net for more information.
