SHELBY CAMPBELL'S ALMOST FAMOUS RESTAURANT AMONG FINALISTS FOR REDEYE'S BATTLE OF THE BURGER 2014

Restaurants Old Fashioned Double Stack Burger Finishes in Top Five

ROSEMONT, Ill., Aug. 21, 2014—Shelby Campbell's Almost Famous restaurant in Elk Grove Village, Ill., operated by First Hospitality Group, Inc. (FHG), finished in the top five finalists for RedEye's annual Battle of the Burgers. The competition, now in its second year, pits Chicago's best burger restaurants against each other. First Hospitality Group President and COO Bob Habeeb made the announcement.

Shelby Campbell's Almost Famous restaurant was voted to compete as one of 15 finalists in a field of over 100 of Chicago-area restaurants. Chef Felipe DeSantiago prepared the restaurant's signature Old Fashioned Double Stack Burger for a hungry crowd in downtown Chicago at Lizzie McNeill's on Wednesday, Aug. 20.

"We're proud of our culinary team and general manager Tina Durfor at Shelby Campbell's and thankful for all of the participants who voted for our Old Fashioned Double Stack Burger," said Habeeb. "Chicago is home to some of the best restaurants around, and we consider it an honor to have our food awarded amongst the top five. We're really looking forward to competing against some of the area's finest burgers again next year."

The restaurant was named after the eccentric Chicago-native Shelby Campbell, who tried and failed at several different things that made him "almost famous," including running for president and writing a screenplay. Today, Shelby Campbell's Almost Famous restaurant features flame grilled burgers, sandwiches and specialty steaks, in addition to a wide beer and wine selection.

Shelby Campbell's Almost Famous restaurant offers a quality menu and dining experience at a reasonable price. Located in Elk Grove Village, the restaurant serves specialty steaks and chops, flame grilled burgers, sandwiches, fresh wraps, salads and one-of-a-kind appetizers.
